Weather Probabilities.

For this section snow flurries and colder this afternoon and tonight, with minimum temperature on the 14th about 29 degrees. Tuesday fair and seasonably cold; fresh westerly winds.

DEATHS.

Mr. Robert E. Heyman, an old and well-known resident, died at the residence, No. 811 Prince street, this morning. The deceased was 70 years old. Mr. Heyman was born in Germany, but came to this country in early life and during the civil war took up his residence in this city. He was a musician and music teacher by profession, and was a member of an orchestra at old Liberty Hall in the early sixties and later at Parker's Theatre, which was situated on the site of the present Sarepta Hall. He remained here after the destruction of the theatre by fire early in 1865, following the vocation of music teacher. He was at one time organist of Christ Church and the Jewish Synagogue. The deceased leaves a widow (daughter of the late Wm. Wolf) and two children.

Mrs. Clara Birney Kaderly, wife of Mr. William F. Kaderly, Master Mechanic of the Southern Railway, died at her residence, corner of Wolfe and Washington streets, last night. She leaves two infant children. The remains will be forwarded to Urbichville, Ohio, where the interment will take place.

Mrs. Olyve May Shaw, wife of Mr. John Shaw, died yesterday morning at the Alexandria Hospital. The deceased was twenty years of age, and was a native of Massachusetts. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pitman, of Prince William county. The remains were removed to the residence of Mr. William L. Cowhig, 1016 King street, and the funeral will take place from there tomorrow afternoon.

Kate Williams, aged twenty-eight years, died yesterday morning at 203 Princess street. The remains were taken to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. The deceased was a native of Richmond.

An infant daughter of Mr. Arthur L. and Mrs. Elsie L. Humphries died at her parents' home, corner of King and Fayette streets, yesterday morning.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Henry Brengle was held yesterday afternoon at the Masonic Temple. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, conducted the services, from Andrew Jackson Lodge No. 120, A. F. & A. M., of which the deceased was a member, conducted the Masonic rites over the remains. The pallbearers were Messrs. Harry Hammond, Charles Glover, Donald L. Aitchison, R. Lee Field, Ashby Bladen and D. E. Robey.

The funeral of the late Leonard Brown, whose death occurred in Anacostia, D. C., Friday evening, took place this afternoon from Demaine & Son's undertaking parlors. Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of the Washington district of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, conducted the services. The remains were interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

The funeral of James Houlson and Emma Houlson, his wife, took place from the residence, 207 South Payne street, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, and Rev. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the First Baptist Church, conducted the services. The interment was made in Bethel Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. L. Sullivan, M. R. Norris, T. Carter, R. H. Hancock, C. Hancock and Mr. Armstrong, of the Knights of Pythias; and Messrs. Dietzsch, C. Griffin, A. Shuman, P. Gorman, W. Grady and G. Hilde, of the Friendship Veterans Fire Association.

DISORDERLY SOLDIERS.

Several soldiers stationed at Fort Hunt who came to this city Saturday became disorderly at Prince and Royal streets late at night, and Mr. Thomas Travers, an employee of the electric railway company, arrested Charles R. Schafer, one of the party. He was taken to the station house, where he left collateral for his appearance this morning. The other soldiers boarded a train, and it is said were orderly on the way down the road, but when the train stopped at Hunter's, where the soldiers left it, one of the party hurled a bottle through a car window, and a piece of the bottle struck Robt. Harper on the head, cutting it seriously. Conductor Talbot snatched his pistol three times at the soldiers before he succeeded in discharging a shot. The railroad officials will have the soldiers identified. Schafer failed to appear in the Police Court this morning and forfeited his collateral.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. India A. Henderson, formerly of this city, is with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. H. O. Pattison, at 915 West Grace street, Richmond.

Mr. George W. Pettey, Chief Engineer of the fire department, is still confined to his home on North Royal street, with an attack of grip. His condition caused some alarm yesterday, and a physician was summoned, who found, however, that the chief was not dangerously ill.

RAIN, THUNDER, LIGHTNING.

Considerable rain fell last Saturday night, and a heavy fog hung over the river early yesterday morning. There were occasional showers during most of the day, with some thunder and lightning in the afternoon. Later the wind, which had been from the south, changed to the west, and clearing conditions and lower temperature followed. Rain, hail, thunder and lightning prevailed in Baltimore yesterday, and a summer thunder storm passed over Philadelphia.

POLICE COURT.

There was but one case for trial in the Police Court this morning. A young Alexandrian, charged with disorderly conduct at Prince and Royal streets Saturday night, was fined $5. Two other white men, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

Kennedy's Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by W. F. Coughlin.

ON THE RIVER.

The high southerly winds yesterday had the effect of increasing the tides which covered the wharves. No damage, however, was done.

Capt. George Davis, of this city, has received the appointment of captain of the steam yacht Giavotti, succeeding Capt. Adde Poley.

Capt. Frank Luckett, of the steamer Lackawanna, who has been ill with the grip, returned to his post today. His position has been filled by Capt. James Marmaduke, of this city.

Several yachtsmen took advantage of the high water yesterday to place their boats out of the winter's ice until spring of the year.

In spite of efforts on behalf of the gunners whose property was confiscated some weeks ago at La Plata, Md., for unlawful gunning on the Maryland waters, it is understood that most if not all of it will be sold at auction.

Quite a number of marketable fish are being daily hauled ashore in the seines out of Hunting Creek, some fine specimens of bass being caught frequently.

A youngster named Robey yesterday afternoon, thinking he was about to be pounced on for shooting craps in the lumber yard, near Wolfe and Union streets, in trying to get around the walls of the old Pioneer Mill fell overboard and was rescued by some passers-by with considerable difficulty.

Mr. Joseph Moore, living on lower Duke street, is building another fast yacht to try conclusions with the two already on the Potomac. It is of the same design as the other and will be fitted up with the latest speed engine.

Agnew's and Dean's shipyards report more than the usual amount of work for this season of the year.

It is understood from people who visited the Dyke woods that there are three wild turkeys feeding there. It has been several years since a wild turkey ventured this close to Alexandria.

The officers of the Norfolk steamer reported heavy weather Sunday morning on the bay and lower river.

The captains of the river steamers report many ducks of the choicest variety in the creeks and lower river. Since the arrest of a few gunners some days ago no one has dared molest them and they feed in safety in the marshes of those creeks.

PREPARING FOR PARADE.

The executive committee of the George Washington Birthday Association met at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Saturday night to hear reports of progress made on the coming celebration. The chairman of nearly all the committees were present and submitted reports.

The secretary reported that the Secretary of War had assured Congressman Carlin that all of the troops stationed at Fort Myer, Fort Hunt, and the Arsenal would be in the line of parade. Besides the troops there will be a naval display, the high school cadets of Washington and firemen from the District of Columbia and Virginia. All of the fraternal organizations of the city will be represented in the parade.

The chairman of the finance committee reported that contributions were being received daily and that responses had been liberal. Treasurer William May announced that subscriptions amounting to nearly $1,000 have already been received by the finance committee. It was decided to ask the City Council for an appropriation of $200.

It has been suggested that the association extend an invitation to the President to be present upon the 22d. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

CATHOLIC BENEVOLENT LEGION.

A musical and literary entertainment was given at Lyceum Hall last evening under the auspices of O'Kane Council, No. 434, Catholic Benevolent Legion, which was largely attended. Addresses were delivered by Mr. Richard B. Tippet, supreme president of the Catholic Benevolent Legion, of Baltimore; Hon. William F. Dunn, Judge of Orphans' Court of Baltimore; Mr. Leopold H. Weiman, of Baltimore; and Mr. Paul J. Proebhold, president of Chesapeake Council, O. B. L., of Baltimore. An instrumental solo was rendered by Miss Madeline Byrnes, a vocal solo by Mr. Kenneth Ogden, accompanied by Mrs. O. G. Lennon, and a recitation by Mr. James A. O'Shea, of Washington.

DIRECTORS ELECTED.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Emerson Steam Pump Co. was held in this city today, at which the following were elected directors for the ensuing year: O. G. Staples, C. E. Wood, Henry C. Brown, Samuel H. Lunt, Thomas H. McKee, W. R. Emerson and R. Bruce Emerson. Immediately after the stockholders' meeting the newly elected directors met and organized by electing the following officers: C. E. Wood, president; W. R. Emerson, vice president; Samuel H. Lunt, treasurer; and R. Bruce Emerson, secretary. James R. Caton was elected attorney for the company for the ensuing year.

FIGHTS.

There were several disorderly scenes in this city last Saturday night. A fight occurred on North West street during which, it is said, pistol shots were heard. Another row occurred among negroes two square east, at Cameron and Fayette streets. There were two rows at Prince and Royal streets shortly after midnight, and later a bottle was thrown through a car window at Hunter's station.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] The docket was called and cases set. The chancery cause of Ada V. Greer vs. George W. Greer, was dismissed. John T. Nails vs. R. A. Howdershell, in chancery division, entered confirming sale of certain property to John T. Nails.

Wise Counsel From the South. "I want to give some valuable advice to those who are with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. B. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured, so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. Price 50c.

GOOD ROADS.

The largest and most enthusiastic meeting of Post P. Travelers' Protective Association, was held on Saturday night, at the Chamber of Commerce. The object of the meeting was to plan co-operation with the State organization in securing from this legislature the best possible good roads bill. It was stated that the present bill, known as the Laasler-Withers bill, had enabled the highway commissioner, Capt. Wilson, to assist several counties in building twenty-five miles of macadam roadway. The Travelers' Protective Association will urge more stringent provisions for convict and jail bird labor and a larger appropriation, believing that the already growing demand of the counties for State aid in building roads will cause an extension ranking Virginia second to none in its highways.

The following resolution was passed, endorsing the action of the State board of directors:

That this association: Travelers' Protective Association of America, instruct the State legislative committee to prepare a good roads bill and present it to the present legislature. That the committee be instructed to employ necessary assistance in framing and securing passage of said bill. Upon motion of Mr. F. S. Harper, Messrs. A. D. Brockett and J. V. Williams were unanimously appointed to aid the State chairman of the legislative committee, Mr. J. Hampton Fitting, of Richmond.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

The board of managers of the Children's Home held its annual meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, 408 Duke street. The report of the treasurer for the year was very encouraging, showing a total $500 received for the support of the home. In spite of the prevalence of much sickness in the city, the health of the children at the home is excellent, there being no one on the sick list. It was the unanimous opinion of all present that the home is in a better condition than ever before, much credit being due to the faithful work of the board of managers, whose efforts have been ably seconded by the superintendent and matron of the home. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chairman of board, Mrs. Amy C. Weech; vice chairman, Mrs. John Buckley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mollie Whately; recording secretary, Mrs. Pauline Jones; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Jorg; treasurer, B. M. Green, of the Citizens National Bank; assistant treasurer, Mrs. J. T. Mansfield. At the close of the meeting the ladies present were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, whose charm as a hostess is well known.

CASE SETTLED.

An attachment suit in equity for $38,000 damages for breach of contract, recently filed by Mr. James E. Clements, in the Circuit Court of the county, against the heirs of the late Charlotte L. Drain, was compromised and settled Saturday afternoon and a deed to Mr. Glen enclosing twenty-five acres of the Drain land, lying next to Mr. George H. Rucker's residence, near the county courthouse, was placed on record. The suit grew out of a contract made by Mr. Clements with Charlotte L. Drain for the sale of all her landed estate in the county; she died some months ago, and her children and heirs at law, who live in Cuba, desired to take charge of their mother's property and attempted to revoke their mother's contract and settle her estate among themselves.

INSURANCE COMPANY OFFICERS.

At the thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Independent Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Fairfax county, held today, the following officers and directors were elected: President, James W. Roberts; secretary, C. Lukens; treasurer, Walter Roberts; executive committee, James W. Roberts, M. D. Hall and J. N. Gibbs; directors, W. H. May, Charles B. Marshall and James W. Roberts, of Alexandria; J. N. Gibbs, Mt. Vernon; M. D. Hall, Burkes; A. L. Lukens, Acotink; E. J. Nichols, Purcellville; E. L. Garrett, Herndon; M. E. Church, Falls Church; R. W. Birch, Falls Church; Geo. G. Tyler, Haymarket; H. P. Dodge, Manassas; C. M. Money, Vienna.

A CARD OF THANKS.

The board of managers of the Children's Home hereby extend to all those who so generously and kindly remembered the home during the holiday season with gifts of toys, delicacies, provisions, clothing and money, a sincere vote of thanks. Every gift was appreciated and accepted.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans will meet at Lee Camp Hall tonight.

There will be a called meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Russie, the little daughter of the late Hugh Murphy, was seriously cut on her neck by falling down the stairs at her home, 918 King street, yesterday morning.

Moses Bannon, colored, was found on upper King street today badly cut about the face. He was taken to the station house, but refused to say who had cut him.

Miss Isabella McKerich, youngest daughter of Mr. Alexander McKerich, died at her home in Washington on Saturday. She had many friends in this city.

It is understood that others of the jury who tried George Midgets, besides those mentioned on Saturday, have signed a petition asking the Governor to commute the death sentence.

Thieves attempted to enter the store of the M. Schuler Beef Company, on King street, near Patrick, last night. They had opened a window in the rear portion of the building, but were scared off before they had secured any plunder.

The Dramatic Club of the Young Men's Sociality Lyceum of this city, together with other Alexandrians, will present the play, "Old Dairy Homestead," in Frederickburg, tomorrow night, for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, of that place.

As a result of the heavy rain, which continued Saturday night and during most of yesterday, the upper Potomac was rising at an alarming rate. The heavy thaw contributed to the flood, there having been about eighteen inches of snow in the mountains.

The Woman's Home Mission Study Class will be conducted by Mrs. D. Elmer Wiber in the rooms of the Young Woman's Christian Association, Twelfth and F streets, Washington, commencing next Thursday, and will be continued every Thursday until the 6th proximo.

Mr. Charles Frinks, a dairyman, living near this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury by being thrown from his wagon on Fayette street, between Cameron and Queen, at an early hour this morning. The accident was caused by the partial overturning of the wagon, owing to the condition of the roadway on the square.

Revel services, which began in the M. P. Church last night, will be continued two weeks. The pastor, Rev. C. I. Humphreys, preached the opening sermon. At a special service for men yesterday afternoon in the George R. Hill Memorial of the M. P. Church South, Rev. G. I. Humphreys spoke on "The Up-to-date Man."
